

Reasonable Suspicion Training for Supervisors

ATKINS

Member of the SNC-Lavalin Group

Course Description

This course is designed to provide participants a clear explanation of the concept of "reasonable suspicion." It uses real-life scenarios that supervisors could face, including "refusal to submit to a drug and alcohol test." Information is included on physical behavior, speech and performance indicators of probable alcohol misuse or drug abuse, as required by 49 CFR 382.603. Materials will be provided to facilitate completing the course.

Successful participants receive a certification stating that they completed the course.
